25.12.12 EQUIPMENT AND CLOTHING / UNIFORM

25.12.12.1 Colors And Numbers Of Team Officials

25.12.12.1 Participating teams must declare the first and second colors (if available) of their respective teams and they are obliged to use these colors for all their matches.

25.12.12.2 All teams are obligated to bring along their first and second colors (if available) on every match. If in the opinion of the Match Commissioner and the Referees, the colors of the two opposing teams clash, the colors must be changed, whereby the spare uniform may be used as a whole or in combination.

25.12.12.3 Goalkeepers must be provided with jerseys of different colors contrasting with those of the two teams bearing their registered numbers (e.g. there shall be at least two No. 1 jersey of different colors for the first choice goalkeeper and two jerseys of different colors for the reserve goalkeeper). Under no circumstance will goalkeepers be allowed to play in jersey bearing numbers different from that originally registered.

- 25.12.12.1.4 Thermal shorts shall be the same color as the main color of the shorts.
- 25.12.12.1.5 If a team wishes to play with a field player in place of the regular Goalkeeper during the match, the player must be designated as a Goalkeeper, wearing a jersey with a color different from his teammates, the opposing team, the opposing team's Goalkeeper, and the Referees. The jersey must have the player's number printed per tournament regulations.
- 25.12.12.1.6 Players shall wear registered numbers on their jersey (back) and shorts. Numbers on jersey in contrasting colors shall be 25 cm in height at the back, while the numbers on the shorts shall be 10 cm in height in the front of the shorts (lower right side). Any team found guilty of allowing players to play in jerseys with numbers other than those registered shall be subject to disciplinary action including fines. Numbers should range from 1 - 20 in figures universally used, with the first goalkeeper's number being 1.
- 25.12.12.1.7 The players' surname may also be shown in contrasting color on the back of the shirts above the number (7.5 cm in height). The lettering shall be in capitals and contain no advertising, design features or other elements. The color of the players' names shall contrast clearly with the uniform (light on dark or vice versa) and be legible from a distance for spectators in the stadium and television viewers. This applies in the case of striped shirts. A plain colored background (either entirely light or dark, depending on the color of the letters) affords better legibility.
- 25.12.12.1.8 Any form of advertising on the uniforms (outfits) during this tournament shall be strictly prohibited. The authorized trademark of the manufacturer shall be allowed to appear only once on the shirt, once on the shorts and once on the socks. The trademark may be used alone as a logo or in combination with the names of the manufacturer but shall not exceed 20 cm on the shirt and 12 cm on the shorts and the sock. The emblem of the team may also be placed on the uniform (shirt).
- 25.12.12.1.9 The players' uniforms (outfits) must be approved by the Tournament Committee. This should also apply to the goalkeepers' gloves, on which the trademark shall not exceed 5 cm.
- 25.12.12.1.10 Advertising is not forbidden on clothing worn by players and officials when they are on training grounds or during their free time. However, no form of advertising is permitted on tracksuits or other clothing worn by the players and delegation officials who are on the field of play or its surroundings.
- 25.12.12.1.11 Any breach of the Tournament Committee's Equipment Regulation Rules regarding advertising will be subject to sanction by the tournament Disciplinary Committee.
