25.14.12 PROTEST AND APPEALS

Any match appeals will be decided prior to the brackets moving by the TD and Head referee.

25.14.12.1 The referee is the highest authority in each match.

25.14.12.1.1 The result of each match ruled by the referee is sovereign.

25.14.12.1.2 Subjective interpretations by the referee on the awarding of points, advantages, or penalties are final and not subject to change.

25.14.12.2 The declared outcome of a match can only be overturned in the following cases:

25.14.12.2.1 If there is a misinterpretation of the score or scoreboard.

25.14.12.2.2 If the declared winner induced a submission from the opponent using a prohibited submission or hold or tactic that was not observed by the referee.

25.14.12.2.3 If the competitor was wrongfully disqualified for applying a permitted submission or hold.

25.14.12.2.4 If the interruption of the fight and disqualification occurred before a tap out, the match will return to the center of the fighting area and the competitor who applied the submission hold will receive two points.

25.14.12.2.5 If the submission resulted in a tap out, the athlete who applied the submission will be declared the winner.

25.14.12.3 In the case of erroneous rulings by a referee due to misapplication of the rules established in this rule book, the following conditions must be met in order to correct the result:

25.14.12.3.1 The referee will confer with the TD or the Head Ref for the event.

25.14.12.3.2 The referee who officiated the match shall make the final decision on whether to amend the result or not.

25.14.12.3.3 The referee director shall confer with the event's center table about the progress of the bracket and may only authorize the change of results if the bracket has not advanced to a later phase.

25.14.12.4 A challenge system is followed to give an athlete's coach the opportunity to appeal a given interpretation by the MR.

To challenge a call and request a video review, the coach will stand up and raise their event ID and remain standing until acknowledged by the MR.

A coach who sits back down is assumed to have withdrawn the challenge request.

25.14.12.4.1 The MR will first wait for a stable position between the competitors before stopping the match to speak to the coach.

25.14.12.4.2 A coach may only challenge the most recent action or sequence of movements.

25.14.12.4.3 A coach may not challenge:

25.14.12.4.3.1 Advantages for submissions

25.14.12.4.3.2 Penalties for passivity

25.14.12.4.3.3 Any sequence that was already reviewed by the VRs
